

Brief

Academic Positions (cont.)

2000-2002	College of William & Mary	Sociology	FT Instructor
1998-2000	University of Virginia	Sociology	Instructor
1994-1999	James Madison University	Psychology	FT Instructor
1991-1994	Georgia Southern University	Psychology	FT Instructor

Publications

Marshall, Douglas A. 2011. "The Ritual Production of Belonging and Belief: Darwinian Flesh for Durkheimian Bones" pp. 31-53 in Understanding Religious Ritual: Theoretical Approaches and Innovations. Ed. by John P. Hoffman. London: Routledge.

Marshall, Douglas A. 2010. "Temptation, Tradition and Taboo: A Theory of Sacralization". Sociological Theory. 28 (1): 81-107.

Marshall, Douglas A. 2008. "The Dangers of Purity: On the Incompatibility of 'Pure Sociology' and Science" The Sociological Quarterly 49(2): 209-235.

Marshall, Douglas A. 2008. "Taking the Rhetoric out of Theoretic Debate: A Rejoinder to Michalski" The Sociological Quarterly 49(2): 275-284.

Marshall, Douglas A. 2008. "Sacralization and the Throes of Modernization: Witch Trials, World War, and the WTC" The New York Journal of Sociology 1: 26-90.
www.newyorksociology.org

Marshall, Douglas A. 2006. "Explanation or Exegesis: Exhuming Durkheim's Epistemology". History of the Human Sciences 19(3):127-135.

Marshall, Douglas A. 2002. "Behavior, Belonging, and Belief: A Theory of Ritual Practice". Sociological Theory 20(3): 360-380.

Fuchs, Stephan & Douglas A. Marshall. 1998. "Across the Great (and Small) Divides". Social Systems 4(1): 5-30.

Awards and Honors

2014 Mortar Board "Top Prof" (USA)

2011 ASA Section on Religion Distinguished Article Award (for "Temptation, Tradition, and Taboo...")

2008 College of Arts and Sciences Dean's Excellence in Teaching Award (USA)

2006 The University of South Alabama Arts and Sciences Summer Professional Development

